The Mayor explained how the evening was going to proceed.

1. TO RECEIVE APOLOGIES

Apologies received from Cllr Phillips.

2. TO DISCLOSE ANY PERSONAL INTERESTS IN ITEMS OF BUSINESS LISTED BELOW

None.

3. TO CONSIDER CANDIDATES FOR CO-OPTION TO THE CASUAL VACANCY IN THE NORTH WARD AND AGREE ACTION IN RESPONSE TO PROPOSALS

There were four candidates who had put their names forward for co-option. All had been invited to the meeting. There were three in attendance, with another unable to attend due to work commitments. Each of those present was invited to tell members a little bit about themselves and why they would like to be co-opted.

The Mayor proposed that the co-option be undertaken by written ballot and was seconded by Cllr Sloan.

RESOLVED

That voting be undertaken by written ballot.

It was explained that the successful candidate would require a substantive majority to be elected, that is more votes than the combined total of all other candidates.

Following the ballot, Frances H Keohane obtained a substantive majority and it was

RESOLVED

That Frances H Keohane be co-opted to fill the vacancy in the North Ward.
