The Mayor proposed granting the freedom of the town In grateful recognition of the gallant contribution and ultimate sacrifice for freedom and democracy for the citizens of Tenby, Pembrokeshire, Wales, and the United Kingdom made by the Belgian Forces during the Second World War to ensure they are never forgotten adding that he hoped members agreed as, if it wasn't for them, we wouldn't be sitting here today.

Cllr Phillips seconded and it was unanimously

RESOLVED

That Tenby Town Council grant the Freedom of the Town to Officers, Senior Non-Commissioned Officers and Junior Ranked Sailors, Soldiers And Airmen of the Belgian Forces in the United Kingdom 1940-1945 and their Successor Families
